Dear Mr. [Redacted]

25X1

This is a brief note to follow up my telephoned invitation for you to be STAP's guest for lunch on Thursday, 7 July, the first day of the Panel's summer meeting. Lunch will be from 1130-1300 in Room 1S06 [Redacted]

STAP lunches are informal, "sandwich" sessions in a CHB conference room, intended to provide an easy atmosphere for informal discussion. The object is to give the members a sense of what issues and problems are on senior Community officers' minds--particularly those with a scientific or technological aspect. Discussion is off the record and very informal, with guest and members sitting around the table and speaking between bites. Generally, the Chairman will begin by offering you a chance to make any remarks you wish and then letting discussion and questions flow. It has been some time since the Panel has had a chance to sit down with a senior NSA officer, and the members are especially pleased that you will be able to join them on the 7th. [Redacted]
